Risk Retention Reporter Announcement

Karen Cutts Award Presented at NRRRA Conference

The National Risk Retention Association (NRRRA), at their annual conference in Washington D.C. during the first week of October, presented their annual Karen Cutts Visionary Award to attorney Jon Harkavy.

The award was created in 2010 to honor the memory of Karen Cutts, founder and publisher of the Risk Retention Reporter. The award is meant to honor a person who has shown outstanding dedication and service to the risk retention industry.

Harkavy has been involved with the Liability Risk Retention Act since it was first written and passed in 1986. Currently general counsel for Risk Services, LLC, which manages 40 RRGs, Harkavy has worked tirelessly on behalf of the industry—from being part of trade association boards to working on NRRRA's

Government Affairs Committee to writing amicus briefs on behalf of RRGs.

Harkavy was genuinely surprised by the award and in his remarks said that the award meant that much more to him having known Karen Cutts.
